

ORCHESTRA IN FINE PROGRAM AT AUGUSTANA

Critical Audience Is Well Pleased With Concert and Playing of Reuter.

The Augustana college gymnasium was well filled last evening with people interested in the splendid programs being given by "our" Tri-City Symphony orchestra, and to hear Rudolph Reuter, the exceptionally splendid pianist who was the soloist at this concert series. And the program given well repaid them for their interest, for it was brilliant. The program was the same as was so heartily enjoyed by the Davenport people at the Sunday afternoon concert at the coliseum, but it went even better last evening.

Rudolph Reuter was at his very best and played with all the assurance and brilliancy possible in a musician of his years. His touch was crisp and precise, and his playing showed a balance and sense of proportion and musical knowledge which was really wonderful. Too much cannot be said in praise of Mr. Reuter and his musical ability, for the audience last evening was carried away by his playing. There is a strength of touch and a rigor and unerring technique displayed in the soloist's part in the Rubinstein concerto for piano and orchestra, the big number on the program. The rhythm of the number and the perfect accord between the orchestral parts and the pianist was remarkable.

Mr. Reuter's playing was so well liked that the audience demanded a number by the soloist, and she graciously responded and played an encore which was perfect in its interpretation.

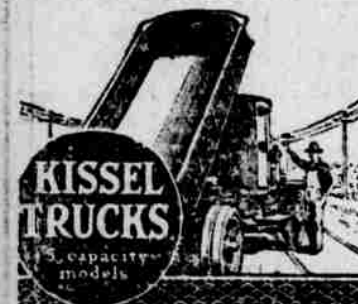

The Glazounov Valse de Concert was very well received, as was the Liszt Symphonic Poem. The last number on the program, ballet music from "Le Cid," was delightful. The musicians entered into the spirit of the joyous music and the interpretation was all that could be desired. The melody was beautifully worked out and a spirit of enthusiasm and fire was put into the music which had never been displayed to such a marked degree at any of the previous concerts.

Other numbers on the program were the Overture, "Merry Wives of Windsor" (Nicolai), and the Tchaikowsky symphony, Op. 64, No. 5.

There is to be a meeting of the board at 4 o'clock this afternoon, when plans will be considered for the last concert of the series, which will be held April 18 in Davenport.

PRESS CLUB IS DESERVING OF PUBLIC'S AID

Appreciation Shown by Patronage of Friday Event When Mrs. Pankhurst Speaks.

"I certainly appreciate what the newspapers have done for us." How often have you said that when your favorite church bazar or benefit dance or artist concert has been converted into a great success through the publicity wisely handled by the people who know how to get things across. Now you are going to have a chance to prove your appreciation.

The Tri-City Press club, whose mission in life is boosting everybody's else game is asking the public—that means you—to help it fill its dearest treasure by filling Augustana college gymnasium next Friday evening when it is bringing Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the famous English suffragette leader, here for a lecture on "Class Cooperation Versus Class War." However, you may disapprove of the militant methods of Mrs. Pankhurst to gain suffrage in England.

you cannot but applaud as does even the most conservative anti-suffrage, her magnificent stand when the war came, in leading Englishwomen to drop all politics and merge their efforts in winning the war. For that service she has become a figure of international distinction today.

The Tri-City Press club has never admitted women to its membership so it is a distinctly radical step for its moving spirits to bring a woman of her place in the limelight for their annual entertainment night.

The Silvis Glee club will provide the music for the occasion and a leading tri-city society and club woman will introduce the speaker. Tickets are only $1, which includes war tax and there will be no reservations. They may be secured at any of the newspaper offices of the tri-cities or at the following other places, Moline, Carlson Bros., 417
